Green Mountain Builders has just announced the completion of a luxury Vistas high-rise condominium remodel in the award-winning community of Bonita Bay, in Bonita Springs, Florida. The transitional-inspired makeover consists of a completely transformed kitchen, main living area, dining room and master bathroom. The concept of the makeover was focused on the spectacular vistas from multiple view points in each room. From this sixth floor residence the homeowners wanted to take advantage of the exquisite panoramic sunset views overlooking Estero Bay and the Gulf of Mexico. Standing 25 stories this impressive building has 98 units and was built in 1998. Vistas was the first of six, luxury high rises along Estero Bay. The most spectacular views of the Gulf of Mexico, Little Hickory Island, Ft Myers, Lovers Key State Park and Sanibel Island can be seen from the balcony lanai.

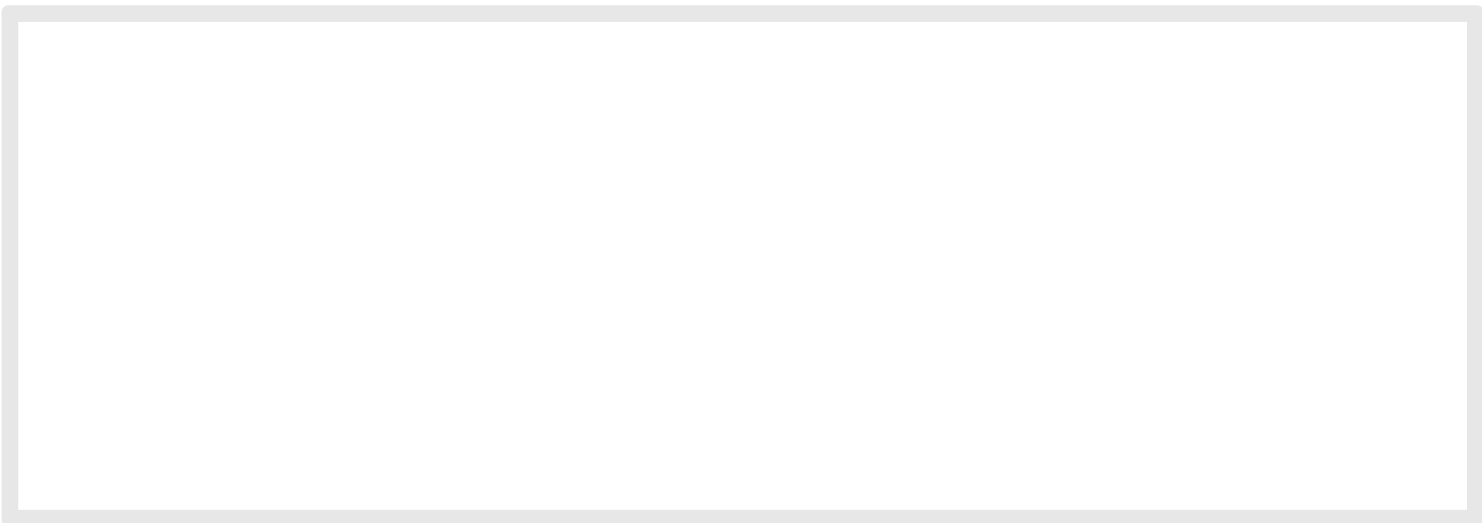

This lovely three bedroom, three bath condominium offers 2,616 square feet of luxury living space. Balconies expand the indoor/outdoor ambience of the space, including the private balcony off the master overlooking the Bonita Bay golf course and Estero Bay. The remodel included all new flooring, fixtures, tile and paint throughout the residence. The kitchen was completely redesigned. The original kitchen featured outdated cabinetry and countertops, lacked good flow, had limited sitting space, storage and a small peninsula. The Green Mountain team designed a more functional and open space that flows into the living area and affords expansive vistas. The remodeled kitchen now includes exotic wood, shaker-style cabinetry, all new top-of-the-line stainless steel appliances, lighting with unobstructed sight lines, an expansive peninsula with quartz countertops and seating for four, comfortably. All fixtures and features are designer-selected giving this transitional remodel a clean, geometric flair.

Tony Persichilli, owner of Green Mountain Builders, a licensed building contractor and currently celebrating thirty years building in Southwest Florida, formed a group of highly qualified experts to design and build this lovely makeover. "We brought in the most creative professionals in their respective fields to work together as a team and create a very special home for the clients," states Persichilli.

The living room's transformation was focused on the views as well. White walls provide more light and a sense of openness. A complete newly furnished living area with wall-mounted television, new lighting, decorator fan and contemporary furniture selections add to the ambience of the entire kitchen, dining and formal living room space. The master bathroom boasts a gorgeous wet room, a trending feature for upscale remodels. As open-plan living becomes increasingly popular, it's no surprise that the concept has extended to the bathroom. For homeowners seeking a serene retreat that feels like a visit to a spa, wet-room-style bathrooms are a natural fit. The transformation this bathroom went through is truly amazing.
